EARLY RUSH PRESAGES RECORD SEASON AT SUMMER RESORTS

New Yorkers Appear in Force Among Advance Guard of Colonists in Berkshires---Military Activities Open at Seagirt July 7

Special Despatch to THE SUM.

LENOY, Mass, May 31.

EVER before in the month of May have so many New Yorkers opened their country homes in the Berkshires. The soaring rents for homes in the cities and suburbs for homes in the cities and non-commissioned officers and non-commissioned officers and non-commissioned officers of the New Jersey State Militia will open. After this camp is closed the militia units will be here for four weeks, the various battalions coming for periods of one week. The units will be here for four weeks.

early cottagers came.

For the first time the Lake Mahkeenac Boating Club and the Lenox Golf Club were open before Memorial Day. All the hotels, except Heato Hall in Stockbridge, were open early. Mrs. Joseph E. Widener and her daughter, Miss Fift Widener of Philatelphia, arrived May 1 at the Curtis

Hote.l They came to the high eleva-tion for Miss Widener's health. Mr. Widener came up for week ends. The family went to New York on Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carnegie arrived this week. Many improvement had been made since last year at their estate. New flower gardens were in sloom, a putting course was ready for use and the lawns were made over and aluable shrubs were planted. Mr. and Mrs. Carnegie will go to Bar Harbor for August. One of the new families in Lenox will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Bon-ner of New York. Mr. Bonner, who had a farm in Interlaken, has be John Struthers place. Miss Kate A. Bonner, their daughter, who have ervice overseas as a war nurse with the unit taken over by Dr. Moody o Atlanta, has been decorated by the Queen of the Belgians for bravery under fire. She will pass the season with Mrs. Daniel Pains Griswold of New York, after four years residence broad, has opened Geranium cottage. Mrs. Griswold was a volunteer worker in England during the war.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Appleton Wade and Mrs. Wade's mother, Mrs. William F. Garrison, have leased Mrs. L. Bolton Bangs's country estate, Manatuck Farm, in Stockbridge. Mrs. Frederick W. Whitridge and her daughter, Mrs. Charles E. Greenough of New York, have leased the Swann villa. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lippencott of New York are to have the Temple Chapman property on the hill in Stockbridge, a cozy sightly place.

Mrs. Frederic Crowninshield is at Konkepet cottage for the season. She was in Italy throughout the war. When the war began the late Mr. Crowninshield and Mrs. Crowninshield were at Taormina, Sicily. They crossed to Rome, and after a time took a place on the Isle of Capri, where Mr. Crowninshield passed his last days. Mrs. Crowninshield remained until hostilities ceased. Her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. de Duncombe and Lee Holley for Gersdorff, are at the Vesey place, in Stockbridge, for the summer. Lieut.-Col. Newbold Morris and Mrs. College. He and his bride will make hurst. Col. Marris arrived this week at Brook-their home in this city in the fall. hurst. Col. Morris was overseas in who was in the remount division, is also back. Major and Mrs. Dana have opened their cottage. Mrs. Dana's of Wheeling, W. Va. The wedding will mother, Mrs. M. Dwight Collier, is at take place at the home of her father, Curtis Hotel for the summer.

urtis Hotel for the summer.

Mrs. Edward W. Sparrow of New mony will be performed by the Rev. Dr. William L. Davison of Grace Church. fork has leased the country place of late William A. Slater, Sr., of Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel French and Miss Margaret Martha Colvig, sister of the bridegroom rench are at Chesterwood in Glen- and Miss Elizabeth Tyler of Richmond, Robbins, Mrs. Robert Maclay, Mr. and Mr. Colvig as best man. There will be Mrs. De Witt Seligman, Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Lee, Misses I. E. and E. T. iclmes and Miss Harriet Baugh have taken apartments at the Curtis for the early season.

Arrivals in the cottages include Mr. of 214 Riverside Drive, will be married to Mrs. Frank K. Sturgis, Mrs. John to Lieut Byron Brown Raiston, U. S. N., and Mrs. Frank K. Sturgis, Mrs. John to Lieut. Byron Brown Raiston, U. S. N. F. Alexandre, Grenville L. Winthrop, in St. Bartholomew's Church Wednes the Misses Kate and Emily Winthorp the Misses Kate and Emily Winthorp, day. The ceremony will be performed Miss Georgiana W. Sargent, Mrs. by Miss Gerdon's cousin, the Rev. Richard T. Auchmity, Mrs. Charles Astor Bristed, Dr. and Mrs. Henry P. Jacques, the Misses Mary and Gertrude Parsons, Miss Emily W. Biddle, Mr and Mrs. W. Roscoe Folsom, Mrs. Churchill Satterlee, Miss Kate Cary, Col. and Mrs. Henry S. Haines, Miss Olivia E. P. Stokes, Mr. and Mrs. Ross O'Gorman. Miss Dorothea Darlington W. Whistler, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Strong, Mr. and Mrs. Albert R. and Miss Frances Simpson of Boston. Shattuck, Mr. and Mrs. George Baty Blake, and Mrs. William D. Sloane.

is at Holmesdale in Pittsfield. Cottage arrivals in Stockbridge include Mr. and Mrs. Henry Iyvison Parsons, Mrs. Oscar Iasigi, Mr. and Mrs. Phil-H. Carpenter, Mrs. Charles A. Clarke, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Doane, Mr. and Mrs. J. Woodward Haven, Charles S. Mallen, Miss Grace Parker and Mr. marriage of Miss Anne Hunter Thomp- Eighty-third street. and Mrs. Charles Robinson Smith of New York.

SEA GIRT, N. J.

SEA GIRT, May $1.—Acting Governor and Mrs. William N. Runyon of Plainfield are expected here early in June, and the Little White House is being made ready for their coming. The cottage col-

The State encampment reservation this The State encampment reservation this year will be known as Camp Runyon, in keeping with the custom of naming the camp in honor of the Governor.

Governor Runyon will entertain the State's politicians and men of prominence at the usual Governor's Day celebration this season. Soon after his arrival he will entertain the members of the State Senate and their wives at of the State Senate and their wives at function, and the customary reception to the residents will be held.

It is to be expected that the Runyons During the past several years there both here and in Spring Lake Beach are awaiting some announcement as to the social schedule at the Little White

oir, and Mrs. Frank W. Coles are in Newcon

DELAWARE WATER GAP.

Delaware Water Gap, Pa., May 31.—
Memorial Day brought the largest crowd Monroe County ever has entertained for a holiday.

Monroe County and especially the Delaware Water Gap and the Poconos have become famous as winter and summer resorts.

This is the best time of the year to appreciate what Nature has done for appreciate what Nature has done for this part of the country, for it is now the wild flowers are out in great abundance. These include the wild mountain laurel and rhododendron lining well appointed walks that take one along mountain paths to the highest promontories either on Mount Minei or Mount

James Emory Squiers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Squiers. During the war he was a lieutenant in the U. S. Army. The coremony to which only relatives and a few intimate friends nave been invited will be performed at noon by the rector, the Rev. Dr. Charles Lewis Street.

the Rev. Dr. Charles Lewis Slatters There will be no reception. Miss Fulton who is a graduate of the Spence School.

will have only one attendant, Miss Josephine Bedie.

Squiers, for his best man and Herber

Mr. Squiers will have his brother, John

Mr. Squiers is a graduate of Williams

Miss Katherine Imogene Baldwin, daughter of Frank V. Baldwin, will be Brooklyn. Miss May Baldwin will at tend her sister as maid of honor, an Va., a cousin of the bride.

after their wedding trip, whome in Wheeling, W. Va.

there will be two bridesmaids. Miss no ushers. Mr. Colvig and his bride,

Miss Lucy Virginia Gordon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Riley Gordon

Robert S. W. Wood, rector of tending the bride will be her cousins. Miss Lucy Addison Seelegson of St. Antonio, Tex.; Miss Julia Duryea Sprigg son Sprigg of Washington. In the bridal party will also be Miss Agnes

Nelson, Lieut, Charles Baltimore Calvert Carey, Lieut. Arthur Wallace Dunn. Jr., Lieut. Walter Alexander

Hicks, Lieut. Martin Griffin and Lieut.

Many New Yorkers will go over to Brooklyn to-morrow afternoon for the ling, at the latter's residence on West walton of that city, to Ranald Hugh | The wedding of Miss Amparito Par-

George Barry Wilson.

of University, Va., and Miss Lois Addi

hole Caldene golf course are in good shape this season.
Canadensis starts the resort season early because of the demands of the trout fishermen.
On the hillsides of Stroudsburg the Churleigh Inn, Highland Inn, Highland Dell, Penniyn, Indian Queen, Maplehurst, Fenner and Fulmer hotels are expecting that the season.

a heavy season.

The Delaware Water Gap looks spic and span. The Kittatinny, the "Big Brick Glenwood," the Castle Inn, Riverview, Delaware House, Bellavus, Howard, Forest Central and Mountain House, Karamao Inn and Willew Dell expect returning patrons by hundreds.

WHITE MOUNTAINS

in the Berkshires. The soaring rents for homes in the cities and suburbs, and the difficulty in getting apartments even at increased rentals, are believed primarily responsible for the rush to the summer resorts. To-day the resort is almost as lively as in mid-season. The golf courses are dotted with players, and little neighborhood dinners are the entertainments of the time.

Lenox made early preparations for tourists. Major George E. Turnure, who is a member of the Board of See tourists. Major George E. Turnure, who is a member of the Board of See tourists. Major George E. Turnure, who is a member of the Board of See tourists. Major George E. Turnure, who is a member of the Board of See tourists. Major George E. Turnure, who is a member of the Board of See to the shore of Wreck Pond, which was destroyed by fire last fall, has been completely rebuilt and has opened.

Mrs. Olga Frey and Mrs. Miller of Mrs. Miller of Mrs. Miller of Arrivals, coming from his country place in the general content of the searly activates. The Son and Dr. Huntington Richards of the Piaza, New York, will be among the early activates.

Special Despoted to Tax Sux.

Whith Mountain resorts expect an active season.

The Tremont Hotel will open about the middle of the month. Horace A. Rounds, the owner, a few days ago acquired title to the beautiful farm formerly owned by the late W. H. Chesebrough of New York, less than a mile from the hotel. The Parker House is to be managed this year by Mrs. McCarter, who manages will go until the opening of the Mount Pleasant House will open June 19, where many will go until the opening of the Mount Pleasant House will open June 19, where many will go until the opening of the Mount Pleasant House will open June 19, where many will go until the opening of the Mount Pleasant House will open June 19, where many will go until the opening of the Mount Pleasant. The White Mountain resorts expect an active season. Bestion Wolf Mountain resorts expect an active season.

The Tremont Hotel will open about the mi opened.

Mrs. Olga Frey and Mrs. Miller of New York id one of the early August of New York are occupying the Frey cottage in Balt more Boulevard.

Mrs. Margaret Oglesby of Philadelphia at her ocean front cottage.

Mrs. Thomas D. Landon and daughter Margaret have opened the Landon cottage in Chicago Boulevard and are expecting to be joined soon by Colonel Thomas D. Landon, who served overseas.

Mrs. and Mrs. Frank W. Coles are in Newcomb, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Welsh, Mrs. and Mrs. James Newcomb, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Welsh, Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Coles are in their Stockton Boulevard cottage for the season. James Graps and family of Brooklyn are among the early cottage arrivals. Mrs. Phoebe Wells and daughter Mae are in their cottage in Washington Boulevard.

Mrs. Yardley and her daughter from Baltimore are in their cottage for the season.

Mrs. Yardley and her daughter from Baltimore are in their cottage for the season.

DETAWARD WARD CAR. King and Cedil Landale.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Kingsbury of New York will arrive at the Mount Washington early in August, and Mr. and Mrs. Frits Achelis will be of the midsummer colony. Fred A. Hoyt is one of the old guard at Palm Beach who will come this way for a season's golf.

OCEAN GROVE.

Special Desputch to Tan Sun. OCEAN GROVE, N. J., May 81.—Ocean Grove is returning to its pre-war programme of summer vents, and instead of recitals by leading operatic stars and musicians, as in the last two years, the artists will be heard in groups this season. While the combinations have not yet been announced, Mme. Galli-Curi, Miss Anna Case and John McCormack, among the singers, have been reengaged.

Mrs. Arthur P. Murray.

Bond and Charles Tifft.

Philadelphia last evening.

hower and serving as ushers will be Another of Thursday's brides will be and Mrs. Angelo Cowley of 410 River-side drive. Her marriage to R. Alastair her, Miss Elizabeth Holoway, Miss Mar

Miss Ethel Finch Robertson will be winter with his father, Robert E. Dow-street near Broadway. Th ceremony will be followed by a small reception at ASBURT PARK, N. J., May $1.—The season in Asbury Park formally opened yesterday with the arrival of the first contingent of cottage and hotel sojourners. The holiday crowds took the first dips in the surf, and kept the aviators at the new Asbury Park Aere and Golf Club busy with pleasure "hops" With only thirty cottages now available for summer tenants. Asbury Park is assembling the greatest cottage colony in its history. Reports from the hotels indicate a proportionate gain in patrons. While many of the smaller houses had their season premier yesterday and today, the larger houses will not open for a fortnight yet, and some will be sinning to come here to occupy their cottages or suites in the Greenbrier.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS

James C. Parrish, Jr., of New York, noted as a golfer, has arrived here with his father, James Parrish. Mr. and Mrs. William E. Carter of Philadelphia, who has been here six weeks, is out in the saddle daily.

Mr. and Mrs. Winthrop E. Dwight of New York are among sojourners here. Mr. and Mrs. H. L. McLaren came here here to be a solourner of the Mrs. William R. Carter of Philadelphia, who has been here six weeks, is out in the saddle daily.

Mr. and Mrs. Winthrop E. Dwight of New York are among sojourners here. Mr. and Mrs. H. L. McLaren came here with the saddle daily.

Sulphur.

Mr. and Mrs. William Harrison Lewis of The Meadows have gone to visit Miss Ethel du Pont Barksdale in Wilmington, Del., after which they will go to Wilmington, N. C., to visit Mr. and started for New York, but will return for the autumn season. Jonathan Ingersoll of New York has joined Mr. and Mrs. M. Orms Wilson

N. J., who came to join Mrs. Schieffelin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Scribner, drove with them on Tuesday to the Kate's Mountain Club. They are on the golf links daily.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. McLaren came here from New York to join Miss Margaret McLaren. Mrs. Frank Kinchley, also of New York and Mrs. Gustav L. Jaeger, whose marriage took place last Saturday in New York, are among the honeymooners here. Many June brides will pass this period at the Greenbrier this season.

Mrs. James Ransom Branch gave a Mrs. Silison Hutchins of New York and Washington, who have taken a opening June 22. Many prominent minletters and lecturers will appear during the season, including William Jennings

Byran, who will attend a great temperance celebration in August.

Byran, who will attend a great temperance celebration in August.

Byran, who will attend a great temperance celebration in August.

Edit of the dealth of the company is scheduled again to the company is scheduled again to the depth of the schedule again
the company is scheduled again
to the depth of the schedule with
the company is scheduled again
to the depth of the schedule with
the company is scheduled again
to the depth of the schedule with
the company is scheduled again to the company is scheduled with the depth of the scheduled with the company is scheduled with the company

those who conceived the annual lower show, will have charge again this year. Of the original workers Miss Emma Martin of Rahway, Mrs. Edward H. Cross of New York and Mrs. Samuel Heliner of Philadelphia are here, and Heliner of Philadelphia are here, and the early arrival of Mrs. L. Carberry Ritchie of Lakewood, Mrs. Huston Dixon of Trenton and Miss Margretts. Fort of South Orange is expected. With the near completion of the new building for the Ann May Memorial Hospital the Spring Lake Hospital Alliance, which embraces in its membership the best known folk here, is planning to extend its work. Many affairs will be held in support of the alliance's will be held in support of the allianoe's work. The season's plans will be formulated when the members hold their first meeting late in June. Mrs. Henry A. Haines of Elizabeth will preside. Others who hold important offices or Mr. and Mrs. Gustav L. Jaeger, whose marriage took place last Saturday in New York, are among the honeymooners here. Many June brides will pass this period at the Greenbrier this season.

Mrs. James Ransom Branch gave a smart luncheon on Wednesday at the Kate's Mountain Club in honor of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Gray of Detroit. Other guests included Mrs. Edward W. McKenna of New York and Mr. and Mrs. Thornton Lewis of the Meadows, White Suiphur.

Mrs. Salie M. Parker and Mrs. Clifford R. Voorhees of New York.

Mrs. Stilson Hutchins of New York on Hutchins of New York will and Washington, who have taken a cottage here for the summer, arrived this week and will be in Second Virginia Row. Lieut. M. E. Bry of New York in Mrs. Huston Dixon, Mrs. William E. Green, Mrs. Horace Balley Weeks. Mrs. Samuel P. Colt of the Weeks. Mrs. Samuel P. Colt of the Colony Club is coming here early next work will come for a month. Mrs. R. Redword will be another June arrival.

mountain paths to the highest promontories either on Mount Minsi or Mount Tammany in the Water Gap or through the Pocono and Blue Ridge mountains in the Pocono section.

The Buckwood Inn golf course at Shawnee-on-Delaware, three miles from the Delaware Water Gap, and the nine
The Auditorium will have its formal

The Auditorium will have its formal

Ethel du Pont Barksdale in Wilmington, Wood will be another June arrival.

Scott Campbell of Trenton will probably be elected to the board of direction of the Spring Lake Golf and and in the Hughes and will go with the recompleted their curs here, tas returned to New York allow for the Mrs. Rupert Hughes, who passed some time here, has returned to New York in the Auditorium will pool to will ming to to will mand Cari Harriman to the Hughes and will go with the will go with the will go with the same of Rhode Island, who completed their curs here, started Thursday evening for New York. Mme. Yvonne de their curs here, tas returned to New York allow for the will mand Cari Harriman to the Hughes and Will appear.

The Auditorium will have its formal

Dozen Cities and Villages Join in Enterprise Promising Unprecedented Boom for the Finges Lake Region

events for the club members. The fact that the very extensive improve-ments to the course which were started two years ago and held up by the club owing to the war conditions cannot be completed to any degree of per-manency this summer precludes the probability of holding the amateur and professional tournaments here this sea-

The Bathing and Tennis Club is the scone of much activity these days. The string of courts are in daily use. The anual north Jersey coast championships will be played there in July and a schedule of club tournaments for both the junior and senior members is in preparation. A. Clayton Clark, who is at the head of the managing committee, will direct the annual water sports in the club's tank. These events will not take place until late in the summer. The take place until late in the summer. The bathing lines are being run out now and the water will be turned into the pool rey soon.

Returning summer vacationists find many notable improvements in the resort. The winter storms of the last two years made such dangerous encroachments in the northern section of the resort that the municipal authorities found it recessary to complete the terror. sort that the municipal authorities found it necessary to complete the jetty construction along the entire beach. This work is practically completed and a much safer bathing beach is assured. The bathing pavilions on the beach will open soon after mid-June.

Anglers are finding the waters of Spring Lake well stocked with choice fish. The State Fish and Game Commission frequently restocks the lake with bass, pickerel and other fish and daily the shortes of the pretty hody are dotted the shores of the pretty body are dotted with enthusiasts of the rod and reel. Albert Marburg and family of Balti-more are in their lake shore home for the season.

Mr. and Mra Samuel Heilner of Philadelphia and New York, who have been motoring through southern California, have returned to Seawood.

A. Clayton Clark and family of Perth Amboy have opened their Pitney avenue home for the summer.

John Franklin Port and family are expected to open their Newark avenue cottage early in June.

Mrs. Grace R. Riva of New York and

Other early arrivals in the cottages are Mrs. Charles L. Taylor of Pittsburg. S. F. Sharpleas and family of Philadelphia, George A. La Vie and family of Wilmington, Del.; Miss Helen Audenreid of Philadelphia, Mrs. Henry A. Haines and family of Elizabeth, Albert Hormeister s. 1 family of Cincinnati. Mr. and Mrs. Chase Mellen of Tenth street, Garden City. The latter wedding will take place June 7.

Mrs. Chase M. Mellen, son of Mrs. and drs. Chase M. Mellen, son of Mrs. and City. The latter wedding will take place June 7.

Mrs. Chase M. Mellen, son of Mrs. and den City. The latter wedding will take place June 7.

Mrs. and Mrs. Pietro Yon of Manhattan are spending a portion of their honeymoon at the Garden City Hotel. Mrs. Yon, organist of St. Francis Church, New York city, was married there a week ago.

The survivors of Company C of the 165th Infantry soon will hold their first reunion at the Garden City Hotel. They Other early arrivals in the AUBURN, May $1 .- The greatest tourist and summer resort boom ever given Central New York was launched to-day with the incorporation of the Finger Lakes Association, made up of representatives from the chambers of commerce of a dozen cities and village panded together to attract motorists and vacationists throughout the country to the Finger Lake region. The communi-the Finger Lake region. The communities represented are Auburn, Geneva.

Ithaca, Watkins, Montour Falls, Hammondaport, Canandaigua, Penn Yan, Interlaken, Trumansburg, Seneca Falls and Skancateles.

Abounding with wooded hills, rushing streams, silent glens, gushing mineral springs and limpid lakes, teeming with fish, the region is by nature a summer resort section. A network of fine automobils roads linking the six Finger Lakes, Skancateles, Owasco, Cayuga, Seneva, Canadaigua and Keuka, adds to the attractiveness of the district, which is historically famous as the home of the Iroquois or Six Nationa, Every picturesque spot in the region is woven about by strange Indian legends. The lakes themselves are arranged by nature in the form of a gigantic human hand.
The Finger Lakes Association has est out upon a three years' programme of out upon a three years' programme of improving the highways, ridding the lakes and streams of fish pirates and erecting a series of additional resort hotels to match those of any section of

GARDEN CITY, L. L.

June will bring to Garden City one of the most successful seasons it ever has known. Nearly all the available coun-try homes now are occupied and reser-vations have been made at the Garden City Hotel from many prominent folk who will be here for the golfing and polo events of the next month. Guests are thronging in for several weddings to be held at the Cathedral of the Incarnation, Garden City, and about the Westbury Wheatley Hills section, The wedding of Miss Edith Mortimer, Mrs. Grace R. Riva of New York and her daughter. Miss Elvira, have been in their Ludlow avenue cottage for several weeks.

Wigglesworth of Manhattan and Garden City, to Chase M. Mellen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chase Mellen of Tenth street, Gar-den City. The latter wedding will take place June 7.

week ago.

The survivors of Company C of the 165th Infantry soon will hold their first reunion at the Garden City Hotel. They were mustered out of service some weeks ago. Survivors of the company will come from all sections to form an organization.

organization. organization.

Arrivals from Manhattan at the Garden City Hotel are: Mra E. R. Currier; Gilbert P. Cotton, Mr. and Mrs. Beverly A. Norris, Phillips Abbott, Dr., Allen Fitch, Mrs. Allen Fitch, Mrs. Marion Fitch, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kantnor, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney L. Smyth, Mr. and Mrs. Mr. Smyth, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney L. Smyth, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney L. Smyth, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney L. Smyth, Mrs. and Mrs. and Mrs. Allen L. Smyth, Mrs. and Mrs. and Mrs. Allen L. Smyth, Mrs. and Mrs. Allen L. Smyth, Mrs. and Mrs. Allen L. Smyth, Mrs.

France: Lieut. Franzier F. Peters, artiliery Corps, U. S. A., and Major John P. Peters, Jr., Medical Corps, U. S. A. Herman Schwarz, who is on the visitier.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Bloomingdale, of 42 West Sixty-ninth street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Marion Hanna Bloomingdale, to Dr. Lieut. Col. J. T. H. Jones, Major M. B. Herman Schwarz, who is on the visities. Southwick, Major Woodward, Carl Herman Schwarz, who is on the visiting staff of Mount Sinai Hospital. Miss Bioomingdale during the last two years has devoted much of her time to welfare work and been active in the inspection division of the Red Cross and also at Debarkation Hospital No. 5. Mrs. Duncan were Henry T. Duncan.
Mrs. Duncan were Henry T. Duncan.
Mr. and Mrs. E. A. MacDougall of New York, who are spending the season at the Garden City Hotel, gave a small dinner on Saturday evening in honor of the return from France of their son, Lieut, Alan E. MacDougall.

onn., and Miss Catherine Bruce Graham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Graham of Newburgh, N. Y., is for-mally announced. Mr. Menendez was a Mrs. tailon of the Twenty-seventh Division in France and prior to going overseas served on the Mexican border with Mr. Jaeger and his bride will make their home in this city after they return from their Southern wedding trip. yer, practicing in this city and for four years was secretary to Benjamin B. is a granddaughter on her mother's side

No date has been set for the wedding

West Eighty-ninth street, have announced Hotel Pennsylvania for the form, there will be a reception at the Hotel Majestic. The bride will have only one attendant, a matron of honor, lent horsewoman.

The wedding of Miss Amy Adele mony was performed by the rector, the Forbes to Major F. McKenzie Davison. Rev. Dr. George R. Van Der Water, and which was to have taken place Wednesday, has been postponed indefinitely on of the bride's parents, 635 West End Artho: P. Murray, James Harden, Good-man Waters, Shelley Potter, Newton account of his illness. She is the daugh- avenue. Miss Margarita Cowley, daughter of Mr. of 176 West Eighty-seventh street.

Miss Mabel Cowen, daughter of Mr. McCloud, of Philadelphis, will take place in the Hotel St. Regis. Miss Cowley will have four bridesmalds attending and Mrs. George Cowen of 39 East her, Miss Elizabeth Holoway, Miss Mar-garita Kohly, Miss Gertrude Hoffman, and Miss Nina Cowley. The best man will be Charles Richard-son of Boston. Mr. McCloud gave his bachelor dinner at the University Club, M. Strauss. It will take place at the St. Regis at 7 o'clock and the ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Dr. Stephen S. Wise, Miss Cowen will have no attendants. The best man and ushers have not been decided upon.

The wedding of Miss Ruth Denison daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Denlson, to Lieut. Robert Watkinson parried to Robert Whittle Dowling of married to Robert Whitte Doubleson, to 232 West Eighty-third street to-morrow Milbank, J in the First Reformed Church, Brook-and Mrs. Milbank, Jr., U. S. A., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Milbank of lyn. The ceremony will be followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman A. Robparents, Mrs. and Mrs. Norman A. Robparents, Mrs. and Mrs. Norman A. Robparents, Mrs. and Mrs. Norman A. Robwill be followed by a small reception at the home of the bride's parents, 400
at the home of the brid Miss Hobertson, York girls, Miss Louise Hallock and Bedford avenue of the Brooklyn. Miss Disabelle Elliott and attended by Miss Isabelle Elliott and Albert Rothwell will be the best man. Lieut Milbank recently returned from France, where he can be a made in the ambulance service. He has ong, Mr. and Mrs. George Baty and Miss Frances Simpson of Sociol.

The best man will be Lieut-Commandary and Mrs. William D. Sloane.

William Pollock of New York William Cordon Whymners will be United States best man, and the ushers will be United States best man, and the ushers will be Lieut. Milbank remainder of the best man. Lieut. Milbank remainder of the best motte Du Pent Cohn, Wallace Cohn, Bennett Ellison, Searle Barclay Lotti-mere and Murray Vernon. On their in A romance of the war will culminate in the marriage this month in Pales- 8. met Capt. Elder, who was a teacher in the Boys' College at Assuit, Egypt, MacDonald, Jr., son of Ranaid H. MacDonald of 137 Riverside Drive. The marriage will take place in the First Presbyterian Church. The brido's sister, Miss Agnes W. Thompson, will be her maid of honor, and she will also will be followed by a small reception at

The wedding of Miss Amparito Farin the Boys' College at before entering the servic can Red Cross. He com la, and was graduated the North Presbyterian Church, 155th street near Broadway. Th ceremony will be followed by a small reception at

Miss Marguerite Schen before entering the service of the American Red Cross. He comes from Albia.

her maid of honor, and she will also have two small attendants, a flower girl, little Miss Polly Walton, and a page, Wilder Bellamy. Mr. MacDonald's best man will be Melville Truesdale of this city. He has chosen for his ushers Boylston Thompson, John Bloodgood, Hampton Lynch, Joseph Walker 3d, John Castles, Gerrish Bausher, Frederick Kuhbe and John Gibb, all of this city: Francis E. Walton of Brooklyn. city; Francis E. Walton of Brooklyn.

Edwin Slocum of Montclair, N. J.;

Kenneth D. Hull of Morristown, N. J.;

Archibald MacLeish of Glen Coe, Ill., and T. Denegre of New Orleans.

The wedding of Miss Helene Wesselman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry

B. Wesselman of 875 West End avenue. tendants will be Mrs. Walter B. Force and Miss Volla Recknagel of Brooklyn; Mrs. Charles MacDonald, Jr., of Tarrytown, N. Y., and Miss Helen Lockwoo of Washington, D. C. Miss Catharine Schenck will be the flower girl and John The wedding of Miss Lyda Buford Killough, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Buford Allen Killough of Houston. Texas. to Chester U. Palmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. and Mrs. Henry Urban Palmer, will take place Saturday afternoon in the chapel of St. Bartholomew's Church. The ceremony will be st half-paet four o'clock and will be followed by a mail reception at the Gregorian Hotel. Miss her maid of honor and Mrs. Edward and 127th street, was her maid of honor and Mrs. Edward and 127th street, was Cornell Schenck the page.

St. Andrew's Church, Fifth wenus

Gordon Conway of this city, and serving as bridesmalds will be Miss Beatrice Wyckoff, Miss Frances Horrman and Wyckoff, Miss Clara Hughes.

Miss Brazelion of Westlyn of New York, Miss Nancy Brazelson of Westlyn of New York Charas, and Miss Fraderick James College in Pay of August 1989. Westlyn of New York Configure of the String Counts, Carlino H. Palmer, will wait upon him as best man.

The bridegroom's cousin, Carlino H. Palmer, will wait upon him as best man and his brother, August Confier of this city, will take place with the string of this city. Edwin Coombs of Essex Fells, N. J., Randelph Catlin and J. Radford English of Brooklyn will be the latter part of this month. It will be a small and quiet Mariar county for white satin. Her bouquet was of illies of the valley and white sweet peas. Her bridesmalds, which was colleged to the real way 18 by the minister, the Review of the Carlin and In All Angels' Church Thursday afternoon at four o'clock, Miss Martha Elizabeth Jones where he served with the French army for eighten months. He form France, where he served with the Carlin month of the Carlin and the Carlin and In All Angels' Church Thursday afternoon at four o'clock, Miss Martha Elizabeth Jones and and gaused and reacebys the proposition of the Carlin and In All Angels' Church Thursday afternoon at four o'clock, Miss Martha Elizabeth Jones and they carlied beautiful oil also which belonged to her real elizabeth of Springfield, Mass. Following the bride with the received with the ceremony which the rector, the Rev. Dr. S. De Lancey Townsend, Will perfect the Pay of Auburn Mass Hone and Mrs. J. Handle S. Vaughtan, Mr. and Mrs. J. Handle S. Pagerial Charles and will be will have the control of the wait of the wa Miss Goodwin has served in a Red ers. Mr. More's best man was Felix Cross canteen for a year and a hair. Allen Jenkins, and the ushers were She is fond of athletics and an excel- Lieut. Walter G. Dunnington, U. S. A.: Orison Hamilton Smith, Gilbert P. Bo-

> In the Church of Our Lady of Hope, West 156th street, near Broadway, on Monday morning, Miss Mercedes Rabasa, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Licenciado Seventy-fourth street, has chosen June 9 Emilio Rabasa, was married to Lieut Leland de Villafranca, U. S. A. The bride was attended by her sisters, Miss Isabel Rabasa and Miss Concha Rabasa. Miss Ethel de Villafranca, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Ilma Echeveria and Miss Olga Echeveria. Augustin de la Torre was the best man and the ushers

Dr. Rabasa and his family formerly resided in Mexico but for several years have made their home in this city. He of has been at various times Governor of this city, will be celebrated Saturday in All Souls' Church, Flatbush of the States of Mexico, President day in All Souls' Church, Flatbush of the Senate and Chief Justice of the The ceremony, which will be at a o'clock, will be followed by a small reception is the son of Mrs. Ricardo de Villafranca end a member of an old Costa Rican family. He was born in California and graduated from Yale in 1915. He re-cently returned from France where he served with the American forces.

In the crystal room of the Ritz ariton, Miss Beatrice Gertrude Bauer, daughter of Image Bauer of Middletown Conn., was married Tuesday to Edwin S. Rauh, son of A. L. Rauh of Pittsmere and Murray version. On their in the marriage this month in Paiss of the form their honeymoon Mr. Dow- line of Miss Ratherine Macklin, daush- ling and his bride will spend the balance for of the summer at her country home at Spring Lake, N. J., and will reside next this city, to Capt. John David Elder. Conn. It was followed by a reception. Both belong to the American Red Cross, The bride was given away by her father with which Miss Macklin went to Pales-tine last March as a nurse. There she with rose point lace which had been worn by her mother at the latter's wedding. The bridegroom's sister, Mrs. A. Case Sunstein was the matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Lucile Karpen of this city, Miss Gladys Lan-deck of Mount Vernon, Miss Frances Wieder, Miss Delphine Lyon, Miss Fanny Fox of Hartford, Conn. and Miss Hen-rietta Rauh of Pittsburg. The bridegroom's father t.as his best man and the ushers were A. Cass Sun-stein, James L. Bauer, Richard Bens-wanger, William E. Benswanger, A. S. Feuchtwanger and Richard S. Rauh. Part of their honeymoon will be spent t White Sulphur and later Mr. Rauh

Miss Adele Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Moriey Campbell of 620 West 116th street, was married yesterday week to Capt. Louis B. Meachar U. S. A., in the St. Ambrose Chapel of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine. will have Waiter Bain Force for his best the Cathedral of St. John the Divine man, and serving as ushers will be Ed- The ceremony was performed by Canon win Post Maynard, Jr., and A. Lioyd Jones and was followed by a small reLott of Brooklyn, Leonard Dawson Adkins of this city and Charles MacDonald, Jr., of Tarrytown, N. Y.

C. Landson, C. Lioyd Jones and was followed by a small reception at the home of the bride's parents. She was given away by her father, and was attended by Miss Frances Parish and Miss Lila Capen of St. o'clock and will be followed by a small sister. Miss increasing the Gregorian Hotel. Miss her maid of honor and Mrs. Edward and 127th street, was the scene on cinnati. There was also a flower girl, or, Mrs. Hugh Philbin of Kew Gardens or Mrs. Edward and 127th street, was the scene on cinnati. There was also a flower girl, will have two matrons of honor. West Browning for her matron of honor. West Browning of Ruxton, Md. or, Mrs. Hugh Philbin of Kew Gardens In the bridal party will also be five and Mrs. Orison Blunt Smith, to Edwin Paris. Capt. Meacham, who recently Louis and Miss Helen Holmes of Cin Jehtel Shipman, and serving as ushers were Capt Conrad Bernes, U. S. A., Walter Righter, William Dodge and Walter Hope. A small reception was held after the ceremony at the Dayton residence, 190 Riverside Drive.

Miss Janet Burnside Patterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Patterso to Gustav L. Jaeger 2d in the Fourth Presbyterian Church yesterday week. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Edward Whitaker Work and was followed by a reception at the St. Re-gis. White charmeuse draped with georgette creps and embroidered in a design of lilles of the valley, made the bride's gown. Her veil was of point applique lace. She was given away by her father, and was attended by Miss Florence L. Klitz, Miss Marion Butler and her cousin, Miss Alice E. Brevoort. The best man was Paul G. Mehlin, and Alexander Sanderson, Jr., M. Christon Hewlett, Barnes Compton and Gerome ter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Woodward of $74 Wadsworth avenue, was married in the Broadway Tabernacle May 24 to Tully Orton Buckner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walker Buckner. The bride's sisthe Rev. Dr. Charles E. Jefferson.

Caul served as ushers.

Mary Noble Doran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Doran, to Lieut. Stanley West 107th street have formally an-Marshal Rinehart, Jr., U. S. A., son of Major Stanley M. Rinehart, Sr., and ter, Miss Flora Schoenfeld, to Arthur Major Stanley M. Rinehart, Sr., and Mrs. Howard Chappelle, Mrs. Mary Roberts Rinehart. It took place in Trinity Episcopal Church at denstein of 255 West Eighty-fourth Mrs. John C. Mallery, Mr. and Mrs. Ten Eyek Wendell, Mrs. Reginald De Street. reception at Woodlawn, the country nome of the bride's parents. She was dressed in white satin, trimmed with of Miss Meya Mortimer, daughter of tulle and pearls and had Miss Marion Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Mortimer, to Will-lam Bradford Whitmore Paul of Beston,

Miss Margaret Bradley. Lieut. Rinehart's brother. Allen G. Rinehart, was his best man and serving as ushers were west 104th street have announced the Jean Hinkle, Martin Littleton, Jr., Hard Col. Eric F. Wood, George Rogers, engagement of their daughter, Miss old Gordon and Harold Swift. Capt. from their honeymoon in about a month

William L. Colt, of 140 West Fiftyseventh street, has announced the engazement of his daughter. Miss Kath-arine Colt, to Lieut. Wells Drorbaugh of the $67th Field Artillery. No date has

Formal announcement has been made by the Rev. Dr. John P. Peters, rector of St. Michael's Protestant Episcopal of their daughter, Miss Joan St. Michael Peters, to Willis Ward Fuy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Fay of Auburn, sergeant in the 105th Machine Gun Batyears was secretary to Benjamir Odell, then Governor of New York. of the late John 1. Davenport, one time

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lee Cook of 600 Mrs. Walker Buckner. The bride's sister, Miss Jane Woodward, attended her as maid of honor and Thornton Walker Buckner was her brother's best man. Serving as ushers were Lewis Probasco Buckner was his brother's best man. Serving as ushers were Lewis Probasco Buckner was his brother's best man. Buckner was his brother's best man.
Buckner, John Jay Buckner, Thomas Aylette Buckner, Jr., and Alfred Cornell. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Charles E. Lawis Probaseo who is a surgeon was a control of the Motor Corps of America and has been engaged in ambulance service in New York and Hoboken. Dr. Nelson, who is a surgeon was a control of the Motor Corps of America and has been engaged in ambulance service in New York and Hoboken. Dr. Nelson, he Rev. Dr. Charles E. Jefferson. who is a surgeon, was a captain in the Medical Corps. No date has been set for the wedding.

There were also four bridesmalds, whose engagement has just been annuals Elizabeth Cobb, Miss Dorothy nounced. Mr. Paul is the only son of Richard Rickard, Miss Anita Storm, and Mr. and Mrs. M. U. Paul, also of Boston.

and his bride will make their home in Col. Eric F. Wood, George Rogers, engagement of their daughter, Miss Jerome Johnson, and Harvey Smith. Florence Brown, to Charles Lester Arndt, The Rev. Gibson Harris, the rector, performed the ceremony, assisted by the Mr. and Mrs. Brown will give a recep-Rev. Allen Howell of Sewickley. Pa. tion for their daughter and her fiance Lieut, and Mrs. Rinehart will return June 8 at the Hotel Marie Antoinette.

> the engagement of their daughter, Miss | Jeannette Leah Hecht, to Milton Liberman of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Hecht will give a reception this evening at the

Mrs. Florence Foster Jenkins has returned to her apartment in the Hotel

Others who entertained were Mr. and frs. C. D. Pettis, Mr. and Mrs. Henry, V. Taft, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Bryan, Jr. HOT SPRINGS.

Special Despatch to Tan Sps. Hor Springs, Va., May 31.—Delights ful weather is closing the spring seas She at the Homestead. Arrivals have been side continuous since early in the year. The time cure has had many patrons, the golf course has been popular and the ing and driving devotees have had few > galls had a luncheon party of eight Tuesday at Fessifern Farm. Mr. and Mrs. George legalls drove to Gillett's for luncheon on Wednesday. Mrs. Cor-nellus Vanderbilt drove early in the week to the upper Jackson River on a fishing excursion. Gen. Cornelius Van-derbilt joined his family yesterday at the Homestead. Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Pratt drove on Wednesday to Flag Rock.

> Others driving through the week

> Koven, Mrs. J. Montgomery Sears and Mrs. E. J. Berwind. Before leaving for their homes early in the week driving parties were given by Mr. and Mrs. Alden Thorndike, Mrs. George S. Silabea and Mrs. John Turner Atterbury. Among the younger set riding through the week were Miss Jeannette Chapelle, Miss Beatrice Pratt, Miss Andrea Philip St. George Cocke and Mrs. Cocke, who arrived early in the week, were frequent riders.

> Registrations at the clubhouse for golf have been numerous this week. J. Low Harriman and S. R. R. Hitt, who arrived here early in the week, played regularly every morning after break-fast. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Evans played daily twosomes. Other daily players through the week were Mrs. Arthur J. Cumnock, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Pratt, Miss Harriett McCook, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Ingalls, Miss Kathleen Ingalls, Miss Grace Vanderbilt, Miss Marge Johnson, Edward F. Pooley, George Batcheller, Robert Batcheller, Henry Seligman, John C. Tappin and John L.